

Meet RSM.Louisville Team

Leonid Madorsky

Principal and Math Coach

Education:

M.S. in Electronics Engineering
Microsoft Certified Professional

Leonid Madorsky graduated in the top of his class from a prestigious specialized School with advanced Mathematics and Physics programs, and received Master of Science degree in Electronics Engineering.

A professional engineer with over 30 years of experience in the High Tech industry, Leonid Madorsky founded the School of Mathematics - RSM.Louisville in affiliation with the Russian School of Mathematics in 2005.

Mr. Madorsky proudly acknowledges that his students' achievements demonstrate the effectiveness of the Russian School of Mathematics program and teaching methodology.

Inessa Madorsky

Vice-Principal and Math Coach

Education:

Gold medal for academic excellence

M.Ed. in Applied Mathematical
Linguistics and Computer Science

Mrs. Madorsky's diverse professional background includes teaching, Systems Development, leading high profile technical projects and project teams for Fortune 500 companies.

She asserts that successful children come from successful environments and encourages parents to be highly involved in their children's development.

"All students, who began learning algebra in our kindergarten classes, were accepted into the Gifted and Talented and Advanced Placement programs."

Dr. Lana Rifkin

Advisor and Founder of the English Program at RSM.Louisville

Education:

SAT II English 800/800
B.S. in Biology, Bellarmine
University, 2004
Magna Cum Laude
MD, University of Louisville, 2008

Dr. Lana Rifkin initiated the English Program at RSM.Louisville.

An Ophthalmology Resident at the University of Louisville/Kentucky Lions Eye Institute, Dr. Rifkin serves as an advisor for teachers, parents, and students regarding college admission requirements, majors, and professional programs entrance exams.

Sava Chernomordik

Math Coach

Education:

M.S. in Mechanical Engineering and Computer Engineering

Mr. Chernomordik is very enthusiastic about RSM. He believes that this program successfully combines the best experience of American and Russian school curriculum with the extensive professional experience of RSM teachers.

Mr. Chernomordik has two sons. Both of them are degreed engineers who graduated at the top of their classes.

"I want to help my students to exercise their individual talent, to free their minds, and to have fun with learning."

Trista McGetrick
English SAT, Reading Comprehension and Writing Coach

Education:
800/800 on SAT II Writing and SAT Verbal

B.A. in Philosophy and Russian Language, Magna Cum Laude, Middlebury College, VT '06

Trista's experience includes academic, creative, and professional writing and editing.

A Post-Baccalaureate student, Trista is a talented and inspiring young teacher. Her English Reading Comprehension and Writing class includes vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing activities to prepare students for the PSAT, SAT I, SAT II Writing, Critical Reading.

"My goal is to improve reading, writing, editing, and critical thinking skills in a fun and stimulating environment."

Dima Ivanyuk
Founder of the Chess Club at RSM.Louisville, Chess Coach

Education:
DuPont Manual High School '10
Math SAT 780 in 11th grade

Dima started playing chess when he was four years old. At the age of five, he entered into his first chess tournament and became a member of the United States Chess Federation (USCF).

Dima won the Kentucky State Scholastic Individual Chess Championship Competition in 2004 and 2006. He was also a member of Meyzeek Middle School's chess team that won Kentucky State K-8 Scholastic Team Championship.

The game of chess helps to develop focus, strategy, logic, analytical skills and thus to achieve higher grades in school and better standardized test scores.

"The chess class is a lot of fun and kids look forward to it."